

Open Position for Full time Veterinary Technician (CVT preferred)

SPCA Tampa Bay- shelter location

Job duties:

Assist Shelter Veterinarian with treatment procedures and exams.

Complete initial physical exam, and start an animal on medications or treatments, based on Veterinary SOP.

Perform routine procedures including, micro chipping, vaccinations, wound cleaning, injections and blood sampling.

Perform and interpret routine laboratory procedures including skin scrapes, DTMs, ear cytology and microfilaria exams. Perform treatments, vaccinate, deworm and/or give heartworm/flea prevention for all animals in the shelter.

Coordinate daily surgical cases and routine dental cleanings.

Administer sedation and anesthesia medications. Intubate and maintain pets on oxygen and/or gas anesthesia.

Monitor pets under anesthesia and adjust levels based on evaluation of pet

Provide friendly, responsive and personalized customer service.

Keep accurate and updated records and enter data as required into shelter software.

Assist other medical team employees as needed.

Be able to interact with the public and discuss medical issues with adopters.

Maintain a clean and safe work environment.

Participate in required meetings and trainings.

Ensure DEA compliance with Controlled Substances.

Professionally represent SPCA Tampa Bay at all times

Please email resume to sstout@spcatampabay.org