

Veterinary Technician-Longwood, FL
Spay N Save

Responsibilities:

The Veterinary Technician role is a wonderful opportunity for a career-minded and values-driven individual to experience an entrepreneurial and growing business model that supports our local community. The individual will be responsible providing quality patient care and support all surgical patients as well as assist with the maintenance of preventative health programs while adhering to all medical protocols.

Additional responsibilities include:

- Promote the humane care and treatment of animals at all times.
- Assist Veterinarian in the pre-op examination of patients.
- Prepare all patients for surgical sterilizations (roughly 35-55 patients per day)
- Monitor patients post-op to ensure appropriate recovery and healing.
- Inoculate patients
- Ensure cleanliness of office for prevention of infectious/zoonotic disease.
- Stay current and research trends pertaining to safe and efficacious medical protocols.
- Assist with post-op rechecks and the ordering of medical treatments as necessary to ensure complete surgical recovery.
- Actively promote spay and neuter, and educate clients on responsible pet ownership.
- Provide high quality service to all clients, volunteers and staff.
- Adhere to goals, objectives, methods and costs necessary to accomplish the mission of the organization.
- Maintain an open door policy and provide direction and support to staff members
- Meet with Veterinarian monthly to establish and discuss scheduled goals and key objectives.
- Participate in and provide proof of continuing education requirements.

Requirements:

- Ability to work a flexible part time or full time schedule
- Veterinary Technician Certification a plus but not a requirement
- 1-2 years experience functioning in a veterinary surgical environment, high-volume of spay and neuter surgeries a plus.

- High energy and inspirational attitude
- Strong written, oral, and interpersonal communication skills with demonstrated success in collaborating within all levels of business; and the ability to work effectively with a diverse community
- Demonstrated ability to drive results and strong commitment to client service
- Proven problem solving skills and an ownership mentality

Spay N Save is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, or sexual orientation

Contact: Joanne Schlaepfer joannes@spaynsave.org